I am an owner of the apartment in [REDACTED] and I am outraged with the proposition of the city council with building city depot along Marrowbone lane. Our area have the less green spaces in Dublin, there is not parks for children to play. Only few trees on the whole marrowbone lane, its the way for tourists to Guinness Factory for God sake. Let the caffes and little restaurants open on the way. It feels like putting ugly sides where the social houses and working class are.
