I object to this proposal on the grounds that there is a dire need for green space in Dublin 8.

Recently every community initiative has been banished from the part where I live. We have lost The Green Door and the Co-Op market from Newmarket; Weaver Square allotments are to be built on. Blackpitts is awash with student housing with a supposedly public access area closed off in breach of planning by an iron gate.

The City Council has a responsibility to deliver a better use of space in Dublin 8. A huge depot like this will add nothing to the community.
