I am strongly opposed to the idea of a "super depot" at the Marrowbone Lane site. As a longtime resident in the area, I can attest that the area is dire need of less traffic, industrial equipment and noise, and in need of much more open space. Given the number of Dubliners who live in this area, the existing levels of depot activity are excessive. Increasing them any more would be hugely detrimental to the health of the residents.

More green space - less congestion.
